Call for Hosts

2012

Past participants should already have signs in their possession. If you have recruited artists for your location or have an artist in mind please make sure they do not already have signs that you can use. Participants should keep good care of the signs and keep track of their whereabouts so they may be used in future years.

Description

Please describe the space you have available for displaying. Do you have space for more than one artist? etc. If you are a gallery, are you interested in featuring specific or regular artists? Include any other details you feel are pertinent.

Payment

2012 Host Fee: $30.00
